

What is culture and arts education?

A multidimensional learning opportunity fostering cultural diversity

Authors: Minerva López, Oksana Kovzele, Ilze Kačāne

Educational tool

An approach, and a field of study, research and practice.

Diverse cultural perspectives

Activities, practices, expressions, materials and objects.

Knowledge and awareness through self-expression

Discovery and experimentation.

Different modalities

Offline, online, distance and blended.

The foundation of our values

A sense of identity, respect towards otherness, critical thinking.

Different pedagogies

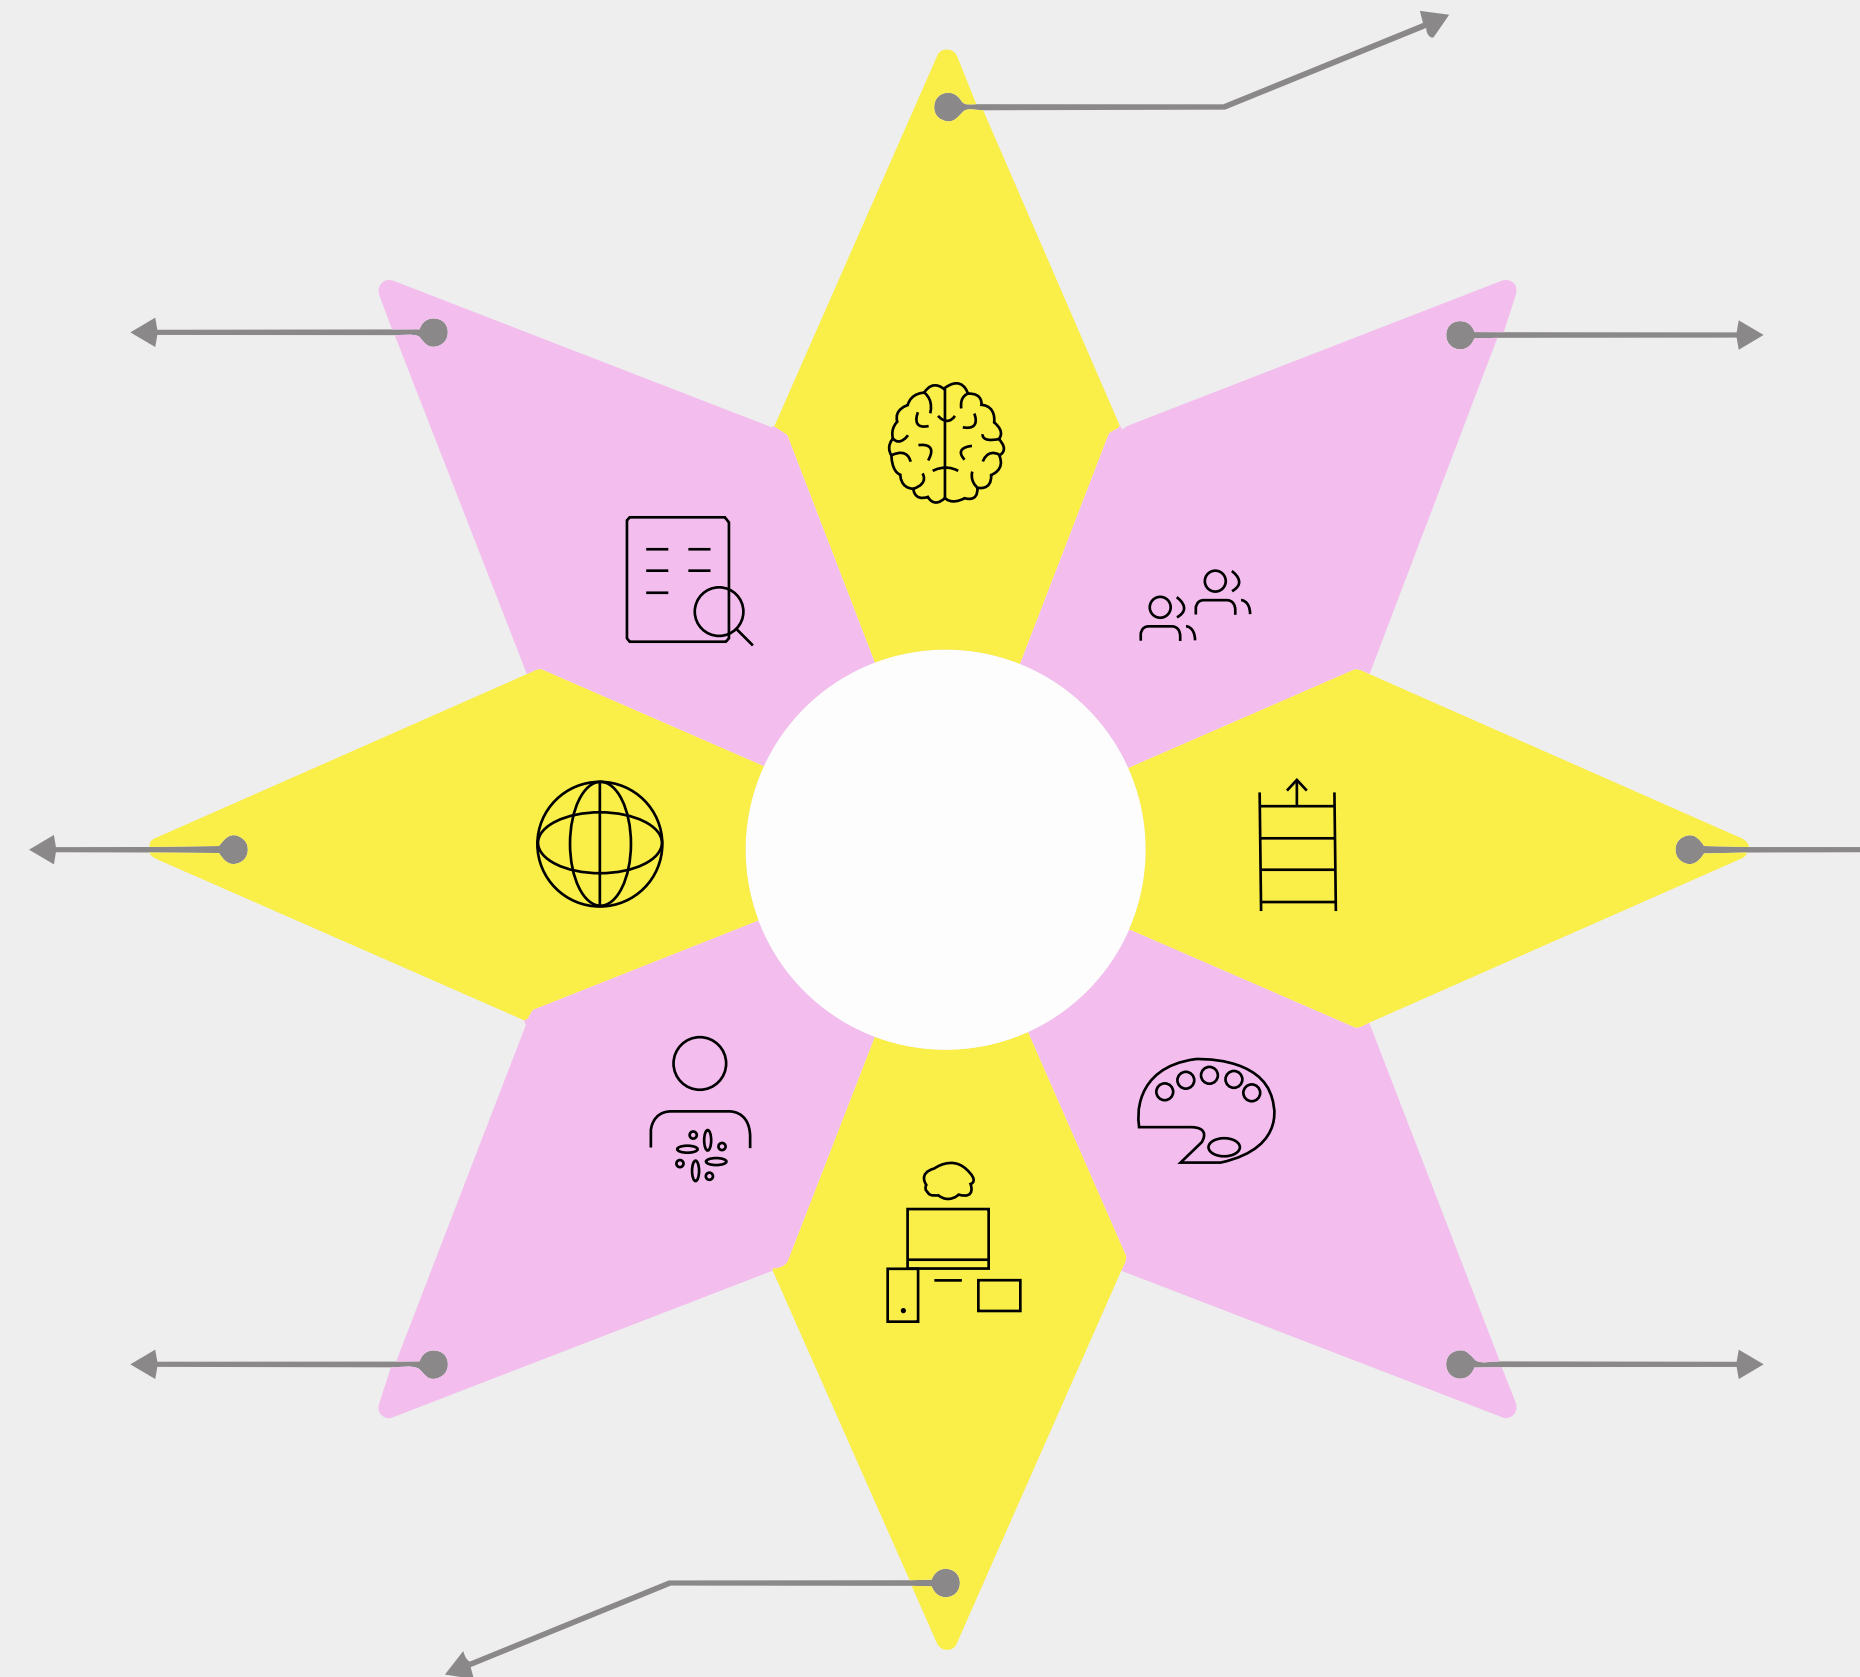

Inclusive educational activities for all.

Lifelong learning approach

Formal, non-formal and informal settings.

Creative expression

Regular practice of the different creative languages in various situations.

Definitions based on UNESCO Framework for Culture and Arts Education (2024), and Syllabus for Art Education (Primary cycle) (2014).

Funded by the European Union

PULSE-ART has received funding from the Europe Union's Horizon of the Europe Framework Programme for Research and Innovation under the Grant Agreement N° 101178988. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the authors only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them.

2024-2027 PULSE-ART project.
Licensed under CC BY 4.0